Whale Tail Outdoors

"INTO THE CANYON"

WHALE TAIL OUTDOORS (WTO) is an independent outdoor film company that was founded in 2014 by brothers John and Cole Bielak. Whale Tail Outdoors began when the Bielak brothers were looking for a way to artistically share their outdoor experiences in hopes of inspiring hunters and non-hunters alike. As the brothers follow in the footsteps of their ancestors, those who homesteaded the great state of Colorado, they continue to hand down the traditions of sustenance hunting as well as the importance of conservation to generations yet to come.

SOUTHERNDRAW

"RUGGED REUNION"

For these friends, it all began with chasing whitetails and alligators in their home state of Florida. As their knowledge and passion for the outdoors grew, so did their interest in traveling West in search for new challenges and hunting the many species of big game that flourish in those areas. So as time passes and careers take them to exciting new places, the guys now call more than just the South their home. Now, every year they travel throughout the United States on unique hunts with awesome friends, with their ultimate goal of living their lives to the fullest and making a positive impact on other hunters as well as non-hunters along the way.

"BIRTH OF A BOWHUNTER"

Marc Warnke is a co owner of Outdoors International (GotHunts.com). As a hunt consulting firm they get to pretty much hunt where ever they want every year. It is their job to check out hunting operations before they send their clients to that operation. Marc has bow hunted the world for over 25 years, but still loves to hunt most in his home state of Idaho. Marc was blessed with two sons; one of which has taken up bow hunting. Jaken is a very smart, kind and tough kid, that doesn't give up easily. Jaken, who is 11, has taken several big game animals with his gun but was a brand new bow hunter this year. He has placed very well in several 3D tournaments and has become a dedicated archer.

BORN AND RAISED OUTDOORS is a close knit group of friends whom over time have morphed into a family of brothers. It is our goal to show the viewer how the relationships of each individual, each with their own quirks and unique personalities mold into cohesive brotherhood.

Whether you were raised with a bow in hand or you are new to the sport, September finds each and every hunter, new or old, with a sense of commonality. With a sense of respect and reverence for this great tradition, these memories will be told and retold around the campfire for generations.

GRITTY GB BOWMEN

"PACIFIC GHOSTS"

Myself (Brian Call), Ben Morris and Anthony Spencer are bowhunting fanatics. Bowhunting is what we do. And we truly cherish hunting and the values associated with it. For us, hunting is a lifestyle—not a sport. And it is a lifestyle that is being threatened by those who do not understand what hunting is truly about. In 2014, we decided to start making films that leave a legacy to our families; films that help non hunters understand why we hunt and the value of it. We want our films to influence people to embrace the hunting lifestyle and to fight to preserve it. Ben and I are cousins and Anthony has been our friend since childhood. We've been carrying inexpensive video cameras on our hunts for more than 10 years. And in that period of time we have captured hours and hours of amateur footage of our hunting exploits. Last year we attended the Full Draw Film School and we met some amazing people and we learned a lot about filmmaking. We took the newfound skills from the school and added them to our own bag of tricks and made our first film, "It's Not About the Horns." This film is real—it's authentic—it's gritty—it's why we do it. We hope it's the first of many indie films to come. You can see more of our work at www.grittybowmen.com, where we host a hunting podcast and post additional Gritty Bowmen films. Say "hi" if you see us and until then, stay GRITTY!

TOP PRIORITY HUNTING

"ADAPTATION"

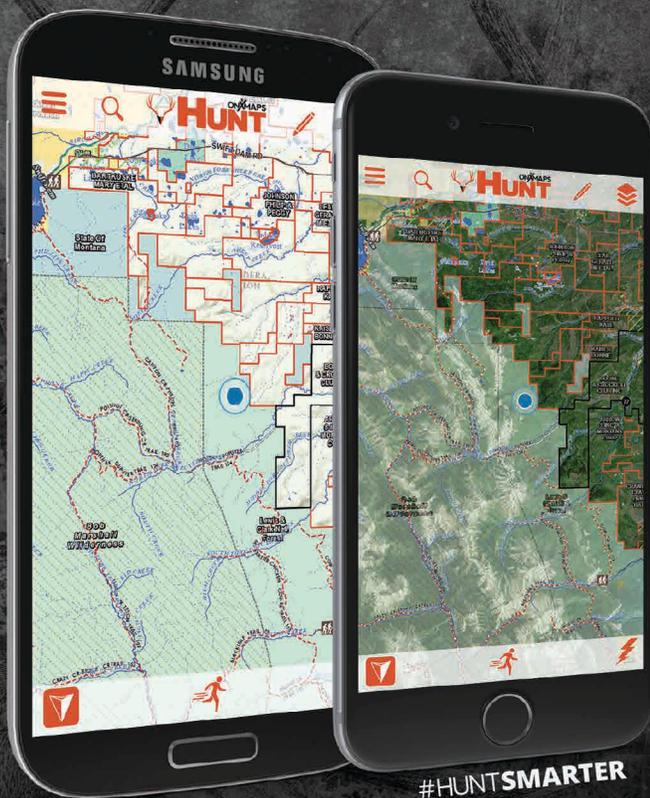

Top Priority Hunting is a group of guys who love God, love their families, and love to hunt. The idea of giving themselves a name and sharing their hunts on film happened after they went to their first Full Draw Film Tour in Boise, Idaho. The year was 2013 and that fall their first real production was complete. Their first film was a great starting point and learning experience. They quickly developed their style of filming and editing. You can expect upbeat, emotional, and engaging clips in their films.

They are a group of guys that believe that hard work and determination are the driving forces to any success, making it a "top priority" to work harder today than they did the day before. They share a passion for the outdoors, especially the mountains of Idaho. Through the experiences they have faced as a team on and off the mountain, they have truly become a family, each bringing their own strengths and style to the pursuit. Respecting the sport, Justin, Jeremy, T.J. and Kevin all pride themselves on sharing real DIY backcountry hunting. The film crew has been part of some really awesome adventures, getting opportunities to film all over the northwest and even taking a trip to South Africa. They are honored to be in this year's line up.

LANE WALTER PRODUCTIONS

From his very first hunt Lane was packing a video camera so that he could look back and share the hunt with his friends and family. Over 3 years ago he wanted to take his work to the next level and started to film for Outback Outdoors on the Sportsman's Channel. Trevon and the crew at OO taught Lane the art of running camera and he fell in love with capturing the raw adventure and pure beauty within the hunt.

Today Lane works for OO as a field producer and has started to branch out of the TV world and work on his own projects. His goal is to capture the raw emotions that are involved within a hunt, whether it be the highest of highs or the lowest of lows. His passion for hunting is evident in all parts of his life and he enjoys being behind the camera just as much, if not more, than when he is holding his bow at full draw. The harder the hunt is the more Lane enjoys filming it, although he loves filming any hunt, his passion is in filming high elevation species like Rocky Mountain Bighorn Sheep, Desert Bighorn Sheep, Mountain Goats and Ibex.

Lane is an Ambassador for SlumberJack Gear and is on the Pro staff for Hamskea Archery Solutions and Spot Hogg Archery. He has successfully harvest 6 of the species included in the Colorado Big 8, all with his Hoyt bow.

Lane lives in Loveland Colorado with his Wife and 1.5-year-old son. He is a Denver Fire Fighter and the Owner of two Max Muscle stores located in Loveland and Fort Collins Colorado.

"ROCK OF AGES"

The very first thing he purchased after graduating college was a small Digital 8 video camera. Not knowing it then, but that purchase would change his life forever and was the beginning of a new passion. In 2003, being broke straight out of school, Heath decided to edit his families annual fishing trip to Montana as a gift to his father for Christmas. It was a success and creating films became an addiction. He began making short hunting, fishing, and even season long videos for his golf league. For him, being able to see the joy and excitement on the faces of his friends and family was rewarding. Through these films, one liners, jokes, and legends have been created that are still talked about to this day, but without capturing these moments many special memories would be lost.

As his love for the west grew, he moved from Pennsylvania to Montana in 2007 where he got a job with a large pharmaceutical company. Realizing it was just a job and not a career he would continue to produce small projects on the side. In 2011 he released Wild Tradition, a successful western traditional bowhunting film. From there he got his first opportunity to produce a show on The Sportsman Channel called the Bucket List Outdoor Show. With encouragement from his now fiancé he left the cooperate world to do what he loves and became a full time producer in 2013. He continues to produce The Bucket List, now in its 5th season and has edited and filmed for other successful shows such as the Wardens, Long Range Reality, and Chasin' the Sun. Now, what drives him most is the never ending creative possibilities when producing outdoor films. Through this, being able to continuously learn and experience new adventures that were previously unimaginable is rewarding. Today, Heath is the owner of H2O Productions and is humbled to be doing what he loves to do and is honored to be part of the Full Draw Film Tour.
